

To Whom It May Concern:

Derrick Nembhard is my brother; we were brought up in Jamaica by the same parents. He is a wonderful and considerate human- being; he is also kind hearted and a genuine person. Derrick and I have a very good relationship. He is always there for you to help in anyway that he can. Derrick is a person that called on a regular basis just check in with you. He also came to visit whenever he had the chance. It was very sad and depressing when he was deported. Derrick had a hard time adjusting to the life style that he left in Jamaica. It was difficult for him to find a job to support himself and his family. As you are aware, Derrick did not have at the time a good educational background and proper job skills. I think he decided to return to the United States a second time, because of the frustration and hardship that he encountered. To my knowledge it seems as if Derrick did not know the severity of this situation. It was very irresponsible on his part to re- enter the country. Derricks experience with marijuana did not alter his character or his credibility as a person. Besides from the fact he made some poor choices, he is a wonderful human- being. Derrick is a dedicated family man; he has a very special relationship his children. He is always involved in their lives and also their daily activity. For instance, he takes his daughter to school almost on a daily basis and pick her up in the evenings. His children are very polite and respectful and considerate. Each of these characteristics are definitely a reflection of who Derrick is and the personality of his children. This separation from Derrick is taking a terrible and emotional toll on his family, children and relatives. His children are always asking for him, and they ask when they will see him again. Derrick came to the United States to make a better life for him and his family, not with the intention of committing any crime. He has work very hard and sometimes for long hours just to make life better for him and his family. He worked up until the day of his arrest. Ever one makes mistakes and bad decisions now and again; the decision that Derrick made was a very unfortunate one. As a result of this, Derrick now has to suffer the consequences. However, we hope that the judiciary system will find it in their heart to grant leniency on him. Regardless of the courts decisions, we will always be there to support him.

To Whom It May Concern:

My brother Derrick Nembhard is one of the most loving and caring human being you would want to know. He is generous with his time especially with his family, children, and friends. Derrick is a very intellectual person who loves to talk about life and its lessons. He is considerate of others and has always tried to help people in any way that he can. Derrick always keeps his family in mind, and always called in order to see how everyone is doing. Derrick did not have it easy in his life. At an early age he suffered a devastated set back when his right hand was almost severed. Over the years it was difficult for him to keep a job for a long period of time. However, despite this set back he tried his very best to do whatever he could to feed his family. He worked with his brother-in-law for a period of time up until his arrest. Derrick is a very hard working and kind person. He is very much into his family and I hope the judiciary system will find it in their heart to be fair and lenient.

Sincerely,

HONORABLE BARBERA JONES
UNITED STATES DIST. JUDGE
SOUTHERN DIST. OF NEW YORK
500 PERL ST.

DEAR Judge JONES,

Derrick Memhard is my brother and I've known him all my life. He is a decent and wonderful man. Since becoming a father, he has been very family oriented, and like all dads, he would do whatever it takes to provide and care for his family.

I am aware that he has plead to illegally entering the United States. He did it merely for the well being and obligation he has to his family as a dad. He fathered two loving and intelligent children who miss him dearly and that he had to provide for. Unable to get a job back home, make it tough for him to provide for his family. This fueled his decision to come here to try and make life easier for himself and his family.

This is not to justify nor is it intended to take away from the fact that he was wrong. It is however stated with the hope that the court show compassion in handing down judgment and that the court get a clearer understanding of his circumstances at the time and that he can be treated humanely.

His children misses him so much. IT is very unfortunate that they miss him so badly but it is no surprise because he prides himself in being a good father and being there for them and ~~like~~ with them very often.

His prior involvement with marijuana use was not a problem, it has never get in the way of his work and his support for his family. This activity does not ~~reflect~~, by any means, the Derrick that everyone around him know. To my knowledge and by his reputation, Derrick is a moral and friendly man who always have something positive to say to everyone around him. He was mindful not to make his past use with marijuana interfere with his job because he was working up until the time of his arrest.

Knowing the type of person his family and friends know him to be, he was a man of character and we are asking the court to have mercy and leniency on him.

We are aware that he has committed a wrong doing, but please take into consideration the love and care he has for his family and his family has for him.

His imprisonment is really taking a toll on the family especially his kids who are having a really difficult time coping, and as a result, their grades are plummeting. They miss him so much, he was great with them and spend as much time with them as he could, especially with his daughter who lives here in the United States, she is very polite, friendly and overall, just a wonderful child. a clear reflection of how her father was, and how he raise her to be. He made sure both of his children have the provision to go to school and church on Sundays. He is also a church person himself, always looking to become a better person day by day.

He works very hard and puts in plenty of hours at work for his family. even though he has health problems. This is just an example an Testament to the kind of person he is. He suffers from hypertension and kidney problem and was on medication just to keep going strong to see his kids go to high school.

and ultimately to College.

Your honor we are aware that he will be deported and will not be able to come back to this country, but we would be thankful if you can have some leniency on him and give him a lesser sentence. It will be better for him healthwise and would give him a chance to be rehabilitated.

Yours Truly,
P. Memphard.

Dear Sir:

This serves to inform you that Mr. Derrick Nembhard lived with his family in Jamaica at 10 Melrose Avenue, Kingston 5. The owner of the home in which he resides in Jamaica is Mr. Cleveland Nembhard, Derrick's Father.

While Derrick was at home in Jamaica, he displayed good conduct to his father and siblings. He is known as the peacemaker, who is always settling or reconciling family quarrels. He provides sound advice in times of crisis and speaks out strongly against unfairness that sometimes presents itself in the family. Derrick is very loving, kind and forgiving. He is one of the sole providers for his family, especially his father, who is very sick.

Before he was incarcerated, he called home regularly to speak with his relatives, father and son. This he has been doing so as to try to build his relationship with his son bearing in mind that they are so far apart. These conversations centred on encouraging his father to remain hopeful as well as encouraging his son to work hard in school to garner a good education and one day have a good job.

Even though he is incarcerated, whenever he called home, he always sounded uplifting and encouraging.

The Occupants of Derrick's household are as follows:

To who it may concern

I Richard Elliston CEO of answer Office Furniture Company have known Derrick Nemhard for the past 10 or more years.

Derrick was employed to my Company from its inception for a period of over 18months.

I must say I have found Derrick to be a wonderful family man, decent forever trying to make the best of every opportunity that life have to offer. He is also Christianly orientated and a pleasant co-worker.

As a honest, humble and hardworking individual it is however unfortunate, that Derrick is now suffering from serious health issues, which no doubt needs immediate attention.

Whatever assistance that can be afforded to Derrick at his time of need, would be greatly appreciated.

Should there be need for any further information, please do not hesitate to contact me at the number or address listed below.
